

I think the FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections.

Indiana's Telephone Privacy law
has improved our time at home. We used to get calls not only at supper time but also early in the morning, prior to our getting up and on Sundays. Since signing up for the restriction of sales calls, they have all but stopped completely. I feel sales calls at home are an invasion of my personal privacy